

NTAF

The Leader in Fundraising Assistance and Support for Transplant and Catastrophic Injury

150 N. Radnor Chester Road, Suite F-120, Radnor, PA 19087 • 1.800.642.8399 • 610.535.6106 (fax) • www.NTAFund.org

RADNOR, Pa., Sept. 1– NTAF – The Leader in Fundraising Assistance and Support for Transplant and Catastrophic Injury recently welcomed Thomas N. Carr, John N. Geary and Benjamin R. Pierce to its board of directors. NTAF is a national nonprofit - based in Radnor, Pa. - that helps transplant patients and individuals who have sustained a catastrophic injury (spinal cord and/or traumatic brain) afford critical but uninsured medically related expenses through fundraising guidance and patient support, as well as financial and other resources. Celebrating 27 years of service, NTAF has helped this patient population, their families and communities nationwide raise $70 million for uninsured medical and related expenses.

- Thomas N. Carr is a practicing Certified Public Accountant with more than 35 years experience. He is a partner at Siana Carr & O'Connor, L.L.P., in Paoli, Pa., and a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants. Carr has a bachelor's degree from Villanova University. He has served on the board of directors of the American Diabetes Association and Eastern University in St. Davids, Pa. Carr joins the NTAF Board as a member of its finance committee.
- John N. Geary is the executive vice president of Advanced Mobile Solutions, Inc., of Wayne, Pa., a new media software group focusing on custom mobile solutions for enterprise consumption designed to create new revenue opportunities and/or enhance productivity. Prior to AMS, Geary founded and managed myLEADERBOARD, Inc., - a new media software company in Camden, NJ, that designed and developed database interactive, real-time mobile applications in consumer and business markets (2004-2010). Geary has a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University. Geary joins the NTAF Board as a member of its development, outreach and communications (DOC) committee.
- Benjamin R. Pierce is the executive director of the Vanguard Charitable Endowment Program, an independent public charity with a mission to increase charitable giving by administering donor-advised funds. As its founding employee, Pierce has overseen the Program's first twelve years of operations. Today Vanguard is one of the most active charities in America. Prior to joining the Program, Ben served as the chief operations officer for the College of Physicians of Philadelphia, Pa. Pierce has a bachelor's degree from Harvard College (1974) and a master's degree in business administration from Villanova University (1988). He has volunteered for Harvard College and the Boy Scouts of America, and has served in various roles at Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church in Bryn Mawr, Pa. Pierce joins the NTAF Board as a member of its development, outreach and communications (DOC) committee.

####